

About Carey Kimball David Lawson

Carey David Lawson has spent over 25 years working to advance projects to benefit the public interest. She is married to Alan John Lawson of Crowley, LA where they are partners with his parents in A&L Lawson Farms and raise their two children, Colin and Lillian.

A native, of Pointe Coupee Parish, she earned her Master's in Public Administration from the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa graduating with honors. While in graduate school Carey served as Province President for Pi Beta Phi Sorority, member of the Junior League of Tuscaloosa, and assistant youth leader at Trinity Presbyterian Church. She earned her Bachelor's in Geography from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, where she served as President of Panhellenic Council, Secretary of Student Government, and selected to Leadership LSU. Carey earned the designation of Certified Fundraising Executive in 2003 and again in 2021.

Her professional work experience includes over 20 years of fundraising experience holding management level positions working for Girl Scouts of the USA, The University of Alabama, LSU Foundation, Woman's Hospital Foundation, and the American Heart Association. Shifting gears, she spent 5 years with Synergy Home Care (Kindred at Home) as an Account Manager in sales and assisting seniors and their families as they navigate through the post-acute care system. In November of 2016 she joined LSU Eunice as Director of University Advancement and in May 2017 also became Executive Director of LSU Eunice Foundation.

As a volunteer she serves on the Eunice Rotary Club, Ladies Krewe for Krewe of Town Revelers Ball, and Acadia Parish Chamber Board of Directors.
